Kailey Wirsta showed the Grand Champion Steer and her sister Lexi showed both the Supreme Champion Female and the Reserve Champion Steer at the Elk Point 4-H Beef Club Achievement Day on Friday, May 18.

The show, held in an outdoor ring for the first time in decades, was judged by Ty Draves and former Elk Point 4-H member Taylor Robbie, with her former fellow club members Ashley Bristow as mistress of ceremonies and Heidi Tymko as ring person. Richard Marcoux, also a former member of the club back in the 1980s, served as weigh master, while long-time 4-H supporters Lucille Smith and Ellen Seward were the show clerks.

The afternoon portion of the show was devoted to the females, with Cleavers Zack Germain, Jayden Jean and Trista Marcoux proudly leading in a trio of baby calves for the crowd's applause.

In the Heifer Calf Class, Lexi Wirsta showed 'Bianca' for the first place ribbon, while Dallas Bristow received second place for 'Blue Moon.' Lexi's bull calf, 'Chill' also placed first in that category, with Kailey Wirsta's 'Saving Cash' second.

Two years, two Zone track and field banners for FGM

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

F. G. Miller High School may be "a really small 2A school", with only 108 senior high students, according to coach Jonathan Randall, but last week they out-performed schools with "almost 300 students" to capture the 2A Zone Banner, with seven of the 27 students competing at Zones in Lloydminster advancing to provincials.

It was the second Zone win in a row for FGM, which earned its first-ever Zone banner in 2017, and a major improvement from five years ago, when Randall took only three students to Lloydminster for zone competition.

"We had some strong performances, from throwers, high jumpers and triple jumpers and long distance runners," Randall said. The running prowess

"comes from cross-country, last year we placed second in the province."

Not only did they win the 2A banner, he added. "We were fourth overall as a school, and the boys finished third overall; that's pretty impressive. This year's Provincials go June 1 and 2 in Red Deer, and "you have to be in the top two to go. We had lots in the top three, which is good for points, but not to qualify for provincials," Randall says. This is the second year in a row that seven FGM athletes are going, and three of them – Brody Odgaard, Jaden Plaska and Brayden Fairbairn – also went last year. This year, they will be joined by DJ Drobot, Nick Anderson, Tyler Roth and Hayden Ludlage to represent their school. "Corbin Ockerman also qualified for provincials but is unable to attend so we had eight qualify but only seven able to attend," Randall noted.

For four of the boys, Drobot, Odgaard, Plaska and Fairbairn, it is also their last chance to represent FGM before their graduation this June.

"A lot of our students are not dedicated to track," Randall says, "they just do it to represent our school, and that pushes them to get even better. I'm proud of them, for sure." He noted that some of the 2A schools they compete against have their own track, "and we practice in a dirt field."

For the Crusaders, school spirit is what makes the difference.

GRAND CHAMPION FEMALE - Lexi Wirsta showed the Grand Champion Female, her three-year-old cow Mojito, at the Elk Point 4-H Beef Achievement Day, winning the Crestview Angus award presented by Les and Heather Tymnko. Cloey Germain shows Mojito's son, Chill.

RESERVE CHAMPION STEER was shown by Lexi Wirsta for the Barrett Built Ltd. award presented by Barry Germain.

4-H Champions

Then it was on to the Yearling Heifers, with heifers shown by Kailey, Dallas, Lexi and Luke Germain moving on from preliminary judging in birthdate groups to the championship round, where Luke's 'High Moon' placed first and Lexi's 'Beauty Queen' second.

Four two-year-old cows with calves at side competed in the next round of judging, Lexi placing first with 'Venezuela' and 'Bianca' and Kailey second with 'Saving Grace' and 'Saving Cash.'

The Wirstas were again the winners in the three-year-old with calf at side class, Lexi again placing first with 'Mojito' and 'Chill' and Kailey second with 'Starstruck' and 'Burnin' Flame'.

The top two placings from all three classes then returned to the ring for the championship round, where judge Ty Draves called them "A really solid set of females" before declaring Lexi's three-year-old and her calf the Grand Champion Female for the award from Crestview Angus and Luke's yearling heifer the Reserve Champion for the K Cow Ranch award.

Following the supper break, members had the opportunity to do some judging of their own, with the cards later tabulated and the prize ribbons awarded at the end of the show to juniors Cloey Germain, first, and Alysa Jean, second, intermediates Dallas Bristow, first and Lexi Wirsta, second, and seniors Kailey Wirsta, first, and Nicole Bristow, second.

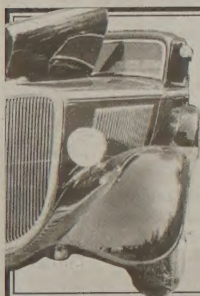

Preliminary judging by weight class of what Taylor Robbie called "a really strong steer class" saw steers shown by Luke Germain and Jayci Marcoux from the lighter group and by Kailey and Lexi Wirsta from the heavier group advance to the Parade of Champions, which followed the Showmanship and Grooming competitions. In the senior division, Kailey placed first and Nicole second in both. Dallas placed first in Intermediate Showmanship, with Lexi second, with Lexi first and Dallas second in Grooming. Alysa Jean placed first in Junior Showmanship, with Cloey Germain second, while in Junior Grooming, Jayci Marcoux placed first and Alysa second.

Dallas Bristow's steer won the Rate of Gain honours with 3.16 pounds per day, his sister Nicole a close competitor with her steer gaining 2.99 pounds per day.

The Parade of Champions wound up the show, with Kailey's steer winning the Grand Champion banner sponsored by Conway and Samantha Roscoe of Family Ties Angus, and Lexi's steer winning the Reserve Champion banner from Barrett Built Ltd.

RATE OF GAIN winner Dallas Bristow accepted the club's big challenge trophy from leader Kevin Wirsta. The steer gained 3.16 pounds per day.

Property Plus celebrates with Grand Opening

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Property Plus Realty owner Desiree Maas and her husband, "unlicensed assistant and biggest supporter" Rocky Maas celebrated the grand opening of her new business on Friday, with Elk Point Chamber of Commerce president Terri Hampson and Mayor Lorne Young on hand to help cut the ribbon held by her mother, Siri Lorenson, and her uncle, Gary Algot.

Algot helped to give the business its name, Maas noted. "I spent a lot of time trying to fine a name, when the first one I picked was already trademarked.. Uncle Gary said, 'Your clients have the property, you're the Plus'. It's good to have a family connection to the name."

Hampson presented Maas with a certificate of congratulations "to one of our newest members," and Mayor Young said he was glad to see a new business open in town, to serve the community and welcome newcomers as the community grows.

Following the ribbon cutting, Rocky was back at the barbecue and Algot joined his wife Sharon in serving up lunch to a long lineup of well-wishers, while Desiree served up cake and reminded everyone to enter the draw for a patio set, won by Brad Haggerty of Bonnyville and a handing basket won by Carole Kulczycki.

A very talented community

This past week, Elk Point has shown what an incredible variety of talents exist within our community and surrounding area.

Farm youth have accepted a bushel of awards for not only their top quality livestock, but also for their skills in showmanship, grooming and judging those livestock.

Elementary School students showcased a wide spectrum of skills, from eloquent public speaking to gymnastics, Tae Kwon Do to artistry in music and dance that gained boisterous approval from the crowd.

Our Senior High students have proved that you don't necessarily have to be big in number to be big winners, with eight of 108 of them qualifying for Track and Field Provincials.

No question about it: Elk Point's got talent galore!

RECREATION CORNER

Busy weekend coming up!

This Sunday is the annual Kick-off to Seniors' Week Pancake Breakfast, co-hosted by the Town of Elk Point & the County of St. Paul. It's a great opportunity to celebrate those who helped build our community and our families. It's also a fun way to meet some new people, sit, visit and hear some great stories.

Town Council will be behind the grill, flipping pancakes, scrambling eggs and baking up some sausage.

It's a free event and everyone is welcome to attend! This Sunday, 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at the Elk Point Seniors' Centre.

The day before, on Saturday is the annual car show and town-wide garage sale. If you plan on hosting a garage sale, let us know about it and we'll post it on our social media pages, free of charge, to help get the word out!

Then that evening is the Spring Fling at the arena. Hosted by the Chamber of Commerce, it's a fun way to get to see what the Chamber can do for you, AND to get out and enjoy some live music, from County Express! Tickets and available at RONA, the Elk Point Review, Property Plus Realty, Servus Credit Union and Knotty Boyz, as well as at the door. Chamber members will enjoy two-for-one pricing if they contact president Terri Hampson at terrihampson2016@gmail.com to receive a discount coupon.

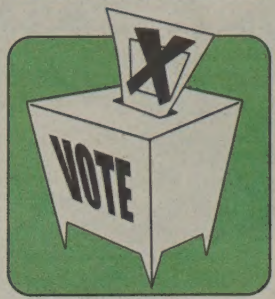

The next big event is Canada Day! Plans are underway and this year we are looking for more stage performers. If you have a talent that you'd like to show off, contact me, 780-207-5898. We are offering the stage to anyone who would like to perform. We love highlighting local talent and this would be a great way to showcase yourself.

We are having an all-day beer gardens, and an evening dance featuring live music from Mid Life Crisis.

All your favourites will be returning, and we have some extra fun games in store for you. We also have PS Catering offering up a delicious rib dinner! BBQ Ribs, baked beans, coleslaw, corn on the cob, garlic toast, and angel food cake with whipped cream and strawberries! Mmmmm, I cannot wait!

We'd love to hear your feedback and ideas, email recreation@elkpoint.ca

Historical park plans, vision for year 2000, 4-H shows go on

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF MAY 27 IN...

1988

'The past is ours to remember, the future is ours to discover' was the theme for the 43-member F. G. Miller Class of 1988, who were introduced by class biographers Christine Wozniak and Darwin Roscoe before Ken Hanson gave the valedictory address. Elk Point Historical Society unveiled their plans for a proposed historical park west of the Elk Point Public Library, which would house the 100-foot historical mural.

1993

F. G. Miller's Class of '93 looked back in love and forward in anticipation at their graduation ceremonies, where Suzanne Rae was valedictorian and Brad Poiras and Tanya Kenyon gave the class history. Longtime Elk Point Historical Society member Frank Mayner received the Lescarbot Award of Honour from the Government of Canada for his outstanding contributions to community cultural activities.

A vision of ideal conditions for Elk Point in the year 2000 and beyond was the focus of a well-attended community prayer breakfast, hosted by the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce. Former classmates Claudia Naber and Andrew McGregor returned to MC the graduation ceremonies for the FGM Class of 1998, with historians Stacey Kozicki and Carrie Baumgardner introducing the 38 graduands and James Babenek paying special tribute to former classmate Bruce Smith, who died in a farm accident in 1995.

despite the recent discovery of Mad Cow disease in northeast Alberta, with district president Allan Preston confident that regular buyers would come out and support 4-H as usual. Chamber of commerce president Glenn Harms was not fazed by small attendance at a recent meeting, and said he was "very proud of our attendance. There are much bigger chambers than ours who don't get this many people out. We have to be the leaders."

PORTAGE - A parade of voyageurs, eight of them carrying a 24-foot freight canoe, made its way up Main Street as the David Thompson Bicentennial Brigade arrived in town.

The Elk Point and District Community Choir Spring Concert was dedicated to Gladys Haag and Jill Hartley, current and past choir members who passed away recently, and Don Conrad said, "we sing in memory of them, in our hearts and in our voices."

First-year 4-H member Tulsen Wells proudly accepted the Elk Point Co-op Grand Champion trophy for his steer as the Elk Point 4-H Beef Club held its first achievement day since the split from the Multi Club, while junior member Kailey Wirsta showed the reserve champion. Heinsburg Community School celebrated the achievements of the Class of 2013: Brett Waskahat, Brittney Pashulka, Reena Moyah, Cambria BigSky, Daryle Fisher and Benette 'Benny' Moyah, a group that mistress of ceremonies Marie Zayac called "A wonderful example of what you can do if you keep trying."

Fundraisers successful

A pair of fundraising initiatives to assist victims of the April 27 condo fire came to an end on Friday as Cornerstone Co-op general manager Graham Getz and Elk Point store manager Bob Ellacott presented just over $10,000, an amount that included $2,500 in matching funds for the first $2,500 in donations from the public, and Andrea Ockerman (far right), who spearheaded the GoFundMe page, presented a total of $3,221 to the families displaced by the fire, both amounts split eight ways. County of St. Paul and Elk Point FCSS Director Janice Fodchuk and Mayor Lorne Young were also on hand as cheques were presented to Shaina Lee, Jackie Heagy and her daughters Shaidel and Katrina, Angela Sanregret, Jacqueline Penz and her son, Kahleigh Moore, who accepted on behalf of Todd Rawlake, and Don Conrad. Recipients John and Sandra Zhang and Desiree Shrestha were unfortunately unable to attend and would receive their cheques at a later time.

Candles lit for loved ones lost

Relatives and friends of those who have passed on between February 2017 and February 2018 had the opportunity to light a candle in their memory on Wednesday at Elk Point Palliative Care's annual Candlelight Ceremony.

The ceremony followed a program, which included the introduction of the Palliative Care volunteers, Donna Fedorus, Mary Bezpalko, Erna Holliday, Fern Sinclair, Betty Poitras and Lawrence Zarowny, and Health Care Centre Auxiliary members Millie Orr and Agnes Moroziuk by the society's president Theresa McNamara.

McNamara recently attended a conference that emphasized the importance of ceremonies and ritual in keeping traditions alive, and said this ceremony has become a tradition for the society.

Palliative Care is "care supported by the whole of the health care centre team," and some of that team was honoured by the presentation of flowers to the staff of Elk Point Healthcare Centre's Administration, Admitting, Medical Records, Lab and X-Ray Departments, another tradition, with different departments recognized each year. Dr. Drew Ramful and Dr. Ayobami Oyebode were thanked for their commitment and care.

The president also praised the community for their support of the Tree of Hope, and the Elk Point Firefighters Association for their donation of $750 earned at a spaghetti-eating contest against their St. Paul counterparts.

Fern Sinclair read a poem, "This Day," before McNamara introduced guest speaker Ellen Reid of St. Paul.

Reid offered quotations from novelist A. J. Cronin and Holocaust survivor and activist Corrie ten Boom before speaking of her own experiences, from nursing school to "living by faith" with her first husband on a First Nations reserve for 14 years before his untimely death left her with six children and a seventh on the way. She later remarried and had another child and was "thankful for all of them." Unfortunately, one of her older children took his own life four years ago, her devastation at his loss sending her to a grief program that she felt had been very helpful. She has since joined the Gideons International, and "sees hurting people all around me, people hungry for the word of God." She completed her message by singing "I Lift My Eyes Up," and accepted a bouquet of flowers in appreciation for her part in the program.

Families were called forward to light candles and receive a carnation as McNamara read the names of Steve Andrishak, Edna Barstad, Minnie Benson, Alvina Cardinal, Cecilia (Louise) Dewan, Ellen Cousins, Steve Drobot, Lorrie Evans, Myrna Fox, Claire Gochko, Elsie Grekul, John Hillebrand, Geoff Hyslop, Allan Lakusta, Peggy Maas, William Maloney, Gerald Melnyk, Olga Melnyk, Mary Nelson, Paul Myshaniuk, Derek Quinney, Phyllis Scott, Harry Shankowski, Helen Smith, John Stanley, Phyllis Zarowny, Ellen Ziomek, Ray Wooldridge, Albert Potvin, Lawrence Wengzynowski, Irene Krochmal and other beloved family members of those present. Some offered a few words about their loved ones, including former Frog Lake First Nations chief George Stanley, who noted that, "A lot of emptiness lingers within our families from the loss of our people... we reach out from our home fires to yours."

Mary Bezpalko read the poem, "If" before Lawrence Pidluzny entertained with a song, "You Raise Me Up."

Lawrence Zarowny presided over the door prize draw, with lovely flower baskets going to Florence Drobot and Sandra Gushnowski, before tea, coffee and goodies were served by the society and auxiliary members.

STAFF HONORED
- Administration, Admitting, Medical Records, Lab and X-Ray departments were presented with flowers at the ceremony.

Elk Point Elementary's got talent!

BALLERINA
Janyka Evans-Anderson performs 'La Danse Macabre.'

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The many and varied talents of Elk Point Elementary School's students were on display Thursday at Showcase 2018, the ninth year for this crowd-pleasing and very entertaining event!

Grade 3A and 4B students Broden Ockerman and Ty Pavoll were the first to hit the stage, getting the crowd warmed up with their array of jokes.

Two Grade 1 students were next on the program, with two very different acts. Tamilore Oyeboode showed off her growing piano skills with "Amazing Grace," while Avree Lesyk performed an enthusiastic and very nimble gymnastic routine she created to the song, "Believer."

Cheyenne Newby and Chantelle Guertzon played "Knocking on Heaven's Door" on guitar and ukulele before another duet, Grade 6A students Rylee Warawa and Canryn Tchir, performed a complicated gymnastic routine featuring numerous flips, with the assistance of Jayci Marcoux.

A declamation speech by a Grade 4 student is rare, but Duane Riviera did a masterful job of that difficult task, exhibiting skills in both elocution and memorization as he delivered a very important message.

Marcel Jenkins and Matthew Zacharuk, Grade 6A, gave the afternoon a touch of France with their rendition of "Frere Jacques" on ukuleles. They were followed by two young ladies from Grade 3A, Nemiah Goulet and Hailey Danyluk, with their dance to "Slow Burn."

More piano talent came to the fore with Grade 4A student Robyn Urquhart's "Jesus Loves Me," before Janyka Evans Anderson took over the stage with a graceful ballet to 'La Danse Macabre,' continuing to dance even when her music failed her part way through the number, her "show must go on" attitude recognized by encouraging applause from the audience.

Something very different indeed was next, with Vanessa Ginez, Grade 4A, reciting the Periodic Table in rhyme that sounded much like a musical classic, no easy feat when dealing with a complicated piece of scientific knowledge.

Not all the students put away their skipping ropes after the Jump Rope for Heart event. Grade 4s Elizabeth Smith, Cassie O'Reilly and Kendall Kowerchuk created their own rhythmic routine to "The Middle" and showed off their skills.

An up-and-coming young vocalist, Aurora Smith from Grade 6A, sang "I'm Yours," by Jason Mraz, before Marcus Pankiw, Grade 3A, demonstrated some crisp and well-timed Tae Kwon Do moves for the appreciative crowd.

A most impressive piano performance came from Brooklyn Newby, Grade 3B, who was accompanied by her piano teacher Kelsey Taylor in "Supercalifragilistic" before her solo number, "Beauty and the Beast."

A second helping of humour came near the end of the show, as Carter Vanwyck and Ryan Urquhart, Grade 6A, had everyone laughing with their "Not Too Shabby Jokes".

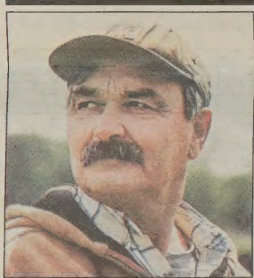

The show came to an end with an outstanding number by seven Grade 3 and 4 students who are part of the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club, Anna and Charlotte Henderson, Evett and Hadley Smereka, Shyanne Klatt, Jacob Petruk and Brenden Scott, as they performed their prize-winning Kozachok for their fellow students.

Mistress of ceremonies Christie Roche called for a final round of applause for all the performers, and added special thanks to music teacher Mary Anne Martinson for organizing this year's Showcase.

Camp Whitney issues '646 Challenge' for potential volunteers

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

United Church Camp Whitney is gearing up for another season of camp sessions, school camps, retreats, reunions, meetings and getaways, and is inviting the public to help keep this vital community resource alive and thriving.

This year, the camp's board of directors has come up with a unique challenge, inviting volunteers to "Take the Camp Whitney 646 Challenge." For Camp Whitney, 646 is not just the number of the highway that passes its gateway, it's a goal of finding groups of six people for six hours of volunteering each, either at clean-up sessions, work bees, fundraising events, working in the kitchen or helping with activities during the camp sessions from July 6 to Aug. 4, or being involved in the board or committee during the year.

At least one group of volunteers has already been found. Elk Point Community Lions are on board to lay a huge stack of carpet tiles, donated by a Lloydminster business, in the dormitories. Other volunteers have already provided curtains for the dorms, while United Way donated sets of bunk beds for the facility. Three of the older buildings, the two four-bedroom chalets and the craft shack, have recently been updated with new metal roofs, thanks to generous donations from area groups, and were proudly shown off by the board and staff at an open house on the Victoria Day weekend, as were the dormitories, the areas where campers enjoy soccer, baseball, archery, crafts and drama, and the outdoor chapel for the church camp's 'God chat' sessions.

The dormitories and other buildings suffered some vandalism damage during the winter and that is currently being repaired by some of the volunteers, but no work bee days have been scheduled to date.

Anyone interested in taking the 646 Challenge is invited to call board chair Jim Belliveau at 780-639-2587 or email, bellart@telusplanet.net

Lexi Wirsta shows District Supreme Champion

VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

DISTRICT SUPREME CHAMPION was this three-year-old cow and calf shown by Lexi Wirsta, with Nicole Bristow showing the calf. Joseph Bilodeau presents the BOS Oilfield Services banner and Kevin Wirsta the K Cow Ranch cash prize, as judges Edith Fontaine and Dave Viske congratulate the winner.

RESERVE CHAMPION honours went to Hayley Dechaine of the Boscombe Multi Club, with Dawson Dechaine showing the calf as Wes Janz presents the Rocky Red Angus banner and Edith Fontaine the Fontaine 'Carel' Farms cash prize.

St. Paul and District 4-Hers from clubs in St. Paul, Elk Point, Boscombe and Goodridge were joined by 4-Hers from Holden, Viking and Beaver River at the Invitational Heifer Show at Goodridge on Victoria Day, May 21.

Conformation judge Dave Viske of Donalda and showmanship and grooming judge Edith Fontaine of St. Paul had a busy afternoon, with large classes and stiff competition, starting off with eight Cleavers that Viske declared were "all champions" for their determined efforts in showing some frisky baby calves, while the older members were busy grooming their stock for the upcoming classes.

The Grooming Competition saw St. Paul members, Brooke Kotowich and Kristina Kotowich place first and second, respectively, in the Senior division, sponsored by Goodridge Social Ag Society. Elk Point members Lexi Wirsta and Luke Germain were first and second in the Intermediate division, sponsored by J. P. and Rhea Dechaine, while Lily Brundidge of Beaver River and Emily Ambler of Goodridge were first and second in the Junior group, sponsored by DART Simmental.

All ages took part in the Judging Competition, listing their choices from a field of four females and reasons for those choices on cards that would later be tabulated by Raymond Guilbault. Winners, announced at the end of the show were: Senior (sponsored by Scott's Backhoe and Oilfield Services Ltd.) – 1. Hayley Dechaine, Boscombe, 2. Brooke Kotowich; Intermediate (Real Honey Ltd.) – 1. Shayla Janz, Goodridge, 2. Lexi Wirsta; Junior (Northpark Collision and Frame) – 1. Kate Albrecht, Holden, 2. Lily Brundidge.

Showmanship was next on the program; winners were: Senior (Donald and Tanya Kwiatkowski) – 1. Kailey Wirsta, Elk Point, 2. Hayley Dechaine; Intermediate (CK Enterprises Ltd.) – 1. Brooke Dechaine, Boscombe, 2. Lexi Wirsta; Junior (Top Gro Agro) – 1. Luke Brooke, Viking, 2. Lily Brundidge.

Five age classes involving a total of 23 yearling heifers underwent preliminary judging, with 10 finalists returning to compete for the Crestview Angus award, which went to Kailey Wirsta's champion yearling, and the T. J. Spur Inc. award, accepted by Luke Germain, for the reserve champion.

Nine cow/calf pairs were in the running in the 2-Year-Old with Calf category, the champion, for the Wes' Bin Moving award, shown by Kristina Kotowich, and the reserve, for the Silver Knight Angus Award, going to Lexi Wirsta.

Seven pairs took part in the 3-Year-Old with Calf competition, Lexi Wirsta accepting the champion award from Laurence Kwiatkowski Ent. Ltd. and Hayley Dechaine the reserve award from Agland.

Five herds filled the ring to capacity in the Herd Class, where Lexi Wirsta accepted the champion award from Ric Roc Cattle Ltd. and Brooke Dechaine the reserve from Ben and Melody Kwiatkowski.

The winners of the Yearling, 2-Year-Old and 3-Year-Old classes returned to the ring one final time for the selection of the Supreme Champion, with the banner sponsored by BOS Oilfield Services Ltd. and the cash prize from K Cow Ranch going to Lexi Wirsta for her three-year-old cow and calf which also won the championship at Elk Point's club show earlier in the weekend.

The Supreme Reserve Champion, with the Rocky Red Angus banner and a cash prize from Fontaine 'Carel' Farms, was awarded to Hayley Dechaine for her three-year-old and calf.

Mistress of ceremonies for the show was Cecile Mathitot, with Tony Janz and Girard Dechaine serving as ringmen, and the show sponsored by Bayer Crop Sciences, Caouette and Sons, Xtreme Power Products, Tony and Karen Janz, and the St. Paul Municipal Seed Cleaning Plant.

Congratulations 4-Hers!

THE FUTURE OF 4-H is in the hands of these Cleavers, who did a mighty fine job of showing frisky baby calves.

CHAMPION YEARLING HEIFER - Judge Dave Viske chose this showy black and white young lady named 'Cheerleader,' shown by Kailey Wirsta, with Leah Janz presenting the Crestview Angus award.

SOMETIMES IT TAKES HALF A CLUB, plus one more recruit, to show a champion herd. Lexi Wirsta accepts the RicRoc Cattle Ltd award from Leah Janz while fellow club members Kailey Wirsta, Nicole Bristow, Alysa Jean, Cloey Germain and a member of a visiting club keep the herd in line, below.

RESERVE CHAMPION YEARLING HEIFER was shown by Luke Germain, for the T. J. Spur award presented by Leah Janz as the judge smiles his approval.

'Hurricane' warning for Mites

Don't tell anyone, but that girl is dangerous! If I were the team manager I would just walk her. I'm talking about 'Hurricane Kayl' Warawa who hit three home runs last Wednesday night here at home against the Bonnyville U 10 Mite girls' team. On two of her big hits the speedy 'Hurricane Kayl' with dandy long legs tried to pass one of her own players. The final score 20 to 15 for the Mite Pumas. 'Hurricane Kayl' getting a lot of RBI's (runs batted in) but all the girls pitched in getting on base before the slugger would try to pass them on the way to home plate!

Review Sports

At the other end of the girls' softball scale the U 19 aged Midgets were all set to go when they had a game cancelled last week, but had played two very good games the week before. The first one against Plamondon, Keanna 'Radio Active' Radcliffe who can really wing the ball with her whirlwind wind up pitches threw three no-hit innings and snagged a line drive for the last out of the seventh inning, but unfortunately for her, Plamondon was still victorious, the final score a close 5 to 1. Catherine 'Kat' Nofall scoring the only run for the Pumas. The very next night the ladies found themselves down 7 to 1 against Lac La Biche in the fourth inning when MacKenzie Evans came to the plate. With the count two strikes and no balls, she sent the ball deep, deep into right field getting a home run and bringing in two others as well. The very next inning Abby Baker following in MacKenzie's footsteps hammered one deep through center field for a round trip. Then in the top of the seventh, Brooke 'Cookie' Krider with a huge catch robbed a player of a sure home run and the third out of the inning. The Pumas battled back hard but it wasn't enough, the final score 12 to 7 for Lac La Biche.

The Pee wee Boys Sox team with head coach Myrna Moroziuk at the helm had a very strong game at home last Tuesday against St. Lina, winning 13 to 10. Myrna has a really good coaching strategy and used a new pitcher every inning in preparation for the final tournament where pitch count will play a big role in getting into the final game. Casey 'Mighty Casey' Warawa, Vanden 'Super Mario' Moroziuk, Phoenix 'Pony Express' Quinney, Sam 'Spiderman' Rogal and 'Mick Jager' Fontaine all throw really well and chucked one inning each with the exception of 'Mick Jager' who threw the last two. 'Spider Man' and 'Mic Jager' have the most heat, but the 'Mighty Casey', 'Super Mario' and the 'Pony Express' are more accurate. They throw more strikes, the batters will hit the ball of course and they relied on their fielder to make a play. And when it comes to pitch count you need to throw strikes. And I know first hand, because I was the man in blue behind the plate. But I had help that night with the calls in the field by my first time rookie umpires Rylee 'the Rocket' Warawa and her sister 'Whirlwind Avery'. Both of them took the umpire course and have great potential as everyone at the ball game could see.

The Mosquitoes Provincial Sox team hosted a round robin this past weekend against Beaumont and Bonnyville, losing all three games but gaining lots of experience playing at this level and will likely not have to play these teams again this year. Most likely they will be tiered up and the Sox will remain in tier 3 or 4. I watched the game on Sunday morning and witnessed some very strong pitching by Koltin Davis, Rylan Dustow and Timmy 'the Freight Train' Cardinal. I also watched Brayden 'Pinball' Pinette who did a terrific job of catching for his first time ever. He has great potential; he hustles for the ball and has a strong arm, which will come in handy for picking off base runners. Not a lot of hits in that game for the Sox, one single by Rylan Dustow, Kaleb 'Formula One' Flamand with a double and one single by 'Bo Diddley' Fontaine. In the afternoon game, the second game of the double header against Bonnyville, Raif 'Rug Rat' Evans-Anderson, Madden 'Mad Dog' Flamand and Kale 'the Hawk' Ockerman getting on base with hits. 'Top Gunner' Crawford, Janyka Evans Anderson, and 'Cyclone Cole' Pierce all getting on base safely with either a walk or hit by pitch, stealing bases and crossing the plate for runs. Great job by the coaching staff, head coach Dennell Anderson, assistant Blair Sinclair and manager Margaret Bayduza, also by the grounds keepers Justin Crawford and Real Fontaine and the cooks Rod Cardinal and Brent Ockerman.

The Bantam Lakeland Northstars provincial team with head coach Tyler Warawa at the reins headed to Devon this past weekend, winning two out of three games, and as Meatloaf would sing it, "And two out of three's not bad!" Seth Colbourne pitched the first game going four innings and allowing only six runs. Charlie 'Chuckles' Rogal going three for four at the plate had a great game driving in four runs. Kobe 'Cobra' Warawa coming in relief in the fifth, sent them back to the dugout, three up, three down. Closer Nolan Dechaine coming in in the sixth inning and shut them down. He also had a great weekend at the plate constantly getting on base and hitting the ball hard.

The second game was the grudge match the boys had been waiting three weeks for, against Barrhead, a team they had lost to at home and wanted revenge and they got it with a tremendous pitching performance by CHARLIE ROGAL was captured in action by Joanne Warawa.

Charlie 'Chuckles' Rogal. 'Chuckles' chucked a complete game, throwing 66 pitches and allowing no runs, the Northstars winning 16 to zip. Pee wee aged rookie 'Mick Jager' Fontaine batting .500 in the game, going two for four at the plate with a couple of RBI's. Andon 'Ace' Ballas had a home run in this game and a couple of RBI's. He's staring to rip the horsehide off the ball, along with Evan Gamache who went two of three with a couple of RBI's. The final game on Sunday was against the host Devon and Evan Gauthier pitched a gem, going four and two thirds innings allowing only six runs, he had a great weekend at the plate as well. Brad Atwell, who fires the most heat on the team, came in to close this one, and kept this one within reach. When Brad is on his game very few players can touch his fast ball. Second baseman Brayden Reid made some outstanding plays. The game going back and forth, the final 11 to 9 in favor of Devon.

Evan Ockerman sprained his finger last week, but made the trip to cheer on the team. The boys missed the big hard throwing Ockerman on the field, but he should be back and ready for the next weekend of play.

The Northstars will be getting re-tiered next week and with a record of four wins and three losses, chances are they will be moving on up, as they should!

In football news, the Lions were at a jamboree on Saturday. They played three different teams and won all three. Danny Cardinal, Hank Rogal. Charlie Rogal, who wasn't there Saturday because he was at ball, Odin Smith and Ty Smereka are all playing for the Lions this year. Sam Henderson was there, but will be leaving the district before football season is underway.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "Sliding headfirst is the safest way to get to the next base, and the fastest. You don't lose your momentum, and there's one more important reason I slide headfirst, it gets my picture in the paper." - Pete Rose.

Iron Horse Mini: at the finish line

FIRST FINISHER - Alain Gogue of Wainwright crossed the finish line at 12:35 p.m., three hours and 34 minutes after leaving the St. Paul starting line and a full 11 minutes ahead of the next runner, Lois Fortmuller, also of Wainwright.

FIRST TEAM IN were the "I Thought They Said RUM" crew, Jennifer Potera, Matt Timm, Christina Kean, Keith Eagles and Krystyne Timm, who came from Cold Lake and Stony Plain and crossed the line at 12:39, just ahead of Team Runderfull, the Honey Badgers and the Trail Pounders, who all arrived within the next six minutes. Nine teams and nine solo runners took part in the 2018 Iron Horse Mini.
